

Call for Abstracts

2013 CALD State-wide Forum

“Happy Ageing for CALD Australians”

“Raising Awareness of the Cultural Needs of CALD residents and clients”

To support service providers, researchers and practitioners to improve inclusion of cultural issues in research and work practice into ageing and related services, Diversicare and Partners in Culturally Appropriate Care (PICAC) will be holding a one-day forum:

Date: Friday 17th of May 2013

Time: From 8.30 am to 4.30 pm

Venue: Rydges, South Bank

PICAC (Partners in Culturally Appropriate Care) Queensland is excited to announce that the submission of abstracts for the Happy Ageing for CALD Australians 2013 Forum is now open.

The Forum will bring together people with a broad range of interests within the aged care and multicultural sectors including industry representatives, service providers, practitioners, educators, researchers and consumer advocates to discuss and explore responses and best practice initiatives addressing the needs of our culturally diverse ageing population. Preference will be given to those abstracts most closely aligned to the theme of the forum. Please note the time allowance for presentations is 30 minutes.

Submission Details

- A complete application form
- Abstracts are due by Friday 15 March 2013
- Notification will be given to applicants by Friday 22 March 2013

To submit your abstract, please complete and email the below form to Ms Silvia Borges (picaced@diversicare.com.au):

Name: _____

Organisation: _____

Technical requirements: _____

Abstract title: _____

Abstract (max 300 words) OR alternatively, please attach word or pdf file with all the above information.

For all enquiries, please contact Ms Silvia Borges Ph 3343 7499 M 0407 589 675 E: picaced@diversicare.com.au